If your county is one of the counties that is split into more than one legislative district, you can view the legislation for the precinct level information.

HB172 was passed to move the filing deadline for those seeking office in 2022. The new filing deadline will be Tuesday, January 25.

During this first week of session, we have met with legislators to discuss many of our 2022 state priority issues. There has been a total of 89 senate and 257 house bills and resolutions introduced in the first four legislative days.

Governor Beshear is expected to give his state budget address on Thursday, January 13 at 7:00 p.m. Next week's report will provide a summary on Governor Beshear's budget proposal.

Members on some of the legislative committees have changed. Click here to view the list of committees and their membership and click here to view the 2022 Standing Committee Schedule.
