Legislative Report No. 8

2022 Kentucky General Assembly

Today marked the thirty-second legislative day of the 2022 Session of the Kentucky General Assembly. The legislature will not convene on February 21, 2022 in recognition of Presidents Day. There has been a total of 330 senate and 621 house bills and resolutions introduced in the first thirty-two legislative days.

On Wednesday, Governor Beshear signed an executive order. This order will exempt from state and local ad valorem taxes, including the county, city, school, or other taxing district in which the motor vehicle has taxable situs from the portion of property taxes computed on any increase in the motor vehicle's valuation from January 1, 2021. Anyone who paid motor vehicle property taxes prior to the implementation of this order shall be entitled to a refund of the overpayment of taxes within 180 days for the effective date of the order.

Bills of interest:

SB 121: D. Givens – AN ACT relating to agriculture exemption license numbers and declaring an emergency.

This bill would require a person who has an agriculture exemption license number to provide it to the seller or retailer at the time of purchase and allow a retailer to accept an agriculture exemption license number instead of a certificate of exemption at the time of a sale. On Wednesday, this bill passed the Senate Appropriations and Revenue Committee and was placed on the Senate consent calendar.

HB 390: K. King - AN ACT relating to economic development.

This bill would add the Commissioner of Agriculture as a voting member to the Kentucky Economic Development Partnership Board and change the quorum from seven to eight members. On Thursday, this bill passed the House Economic and Workforce Development Committee and now heads to the full House for their consideration.

HB 475: M. Meredith - AN ACT proposing an amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky relating to the General Assembly's authority over local revenue options.

This bill would propose to amend Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky to permit the General Assembly to authorize a county, city, town, or municipal corporation to assess and collect local taxes and fees that are not otherwise in conflict with the Constitution. If this bill passes it would then be placed on the general election ballot in November. On Thursday, this bill passed the House Elections, Constitutional Amendments and Intergovernmental Affairs Committee and now heads to the full House for their consideration.

HCR 47: D. Frazier Gordon - A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION commending Madison County Schools for using the farm-to-school concept for school meals and encouraging other school districts to do so.

This resolution encourages all local school districts to purchase locally-grown food to solve food supply issues, provide fresh, nutritious food to students, and support local producers. On Monday, this resolution passed the House on a vote of 91-0 and has been assigned to the Senate Agriculture Committee.

KFB Policy:

"We encourage the utilization of Kentucky agriculture products by state and county agencies, state funded institutions, public schools and publicly funded projects whenever possible. We also encourage these institutions to contract with local growers when feasible."

REMINDER:

This year we will again combine our Legislative Drive-In Day with our annual Food Check-Out Day activities on March 16, 2022. This will allow those of you visiting with your legislator(s) the opportunity to present them with a basket of Kentucky grown agricultural products to celebrate the safest most affordable food in the world.

The meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m. in the auditorium of the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet, located at 200 Mero Street, Frankfort, Kentucky.

We encourage you to contact your senator and representative in advance to let them know you will be in Frankfort that day and to set up a meeting with them to discuss issues affecting agriculture and to present them with a Food Check-Out Day basket.
