

STATEWIDE SCHOLARSHIPS FOR 2022

- Sam Moore Scholarship, $4,000 to a student attending a Kentucky college or university and pursuing a four-year degree in animal health/veterinary technology or a related field.
- Leadership in Agriculture Scholarship, $3,000 each to two children of farm families attending a Kentucky college or university.
- Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, $2,000 each to two students.
- Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance Agents Association, $1,000 to two students. One scholarship will be awarded to the child of an Agency Manager or Insurance Agent. A second scholarship will be awarded to the child of an Agency Secretary or CSR.
- Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, $1,000 each to 25 students.
- Louis F. Ison Memorial Scholarship, $1,000 to a student with a baccalaureate degree from any recognized four-year college in Kentucky enrolled or accepted for admission as a full-time graduate student pursuing a graduate degree in the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture, Food and Environment. Previous winners are not eligible.
- Paul D. Everman Fund for Lifetime Learning, $3000 to a student at least 23 years old and must maintain a 2.5 GPA throughout college career.

COUNTY FARM BUREAU SCHOLARSHIPS FOR 2022*

*Note: To be eligible for one of these county scholarships, the applicant's parent(s) or legal guardian(s) must be a member of the county Farm Bureau sponsoring the scholarship. Recipients must maintain their county Farm Bureau membership while the scholarship is in force.

- Allen County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to two Allen County students and the Ralston Bewley Scholarship, $500 to an Allen County student.
- Boone County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to two students who are full-time residents of a Boone County Farm Bureau member's household.
- Boyle County Farm Bureau/David Sparrow Memorial Scholarship: $1,000 to a Boyle County student.
- Campbell County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to six students who are full-time residents of a Campbell County Farm Bureau member's household pursuing a four-year degree or a degree in Career and Technical Education. It is the Campbell County Farm Bureau's preference to award four University or College scholarships and two Career and Technical Education Scholarships when applicable. Recipients must be a member of Campbell County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Casey County Farm Bureau: $500 each to five students, whose parents are members of Casey County Farm Bureau, and are pursuing a four-year degree or a degree in Career and Technical Education. It is the Casey County Farm Bureau's preference to award three University or College scholarships and two Career and Technical Education Scholarships when applicable. Recipients must be a member of Casey County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.

- Carlisle County Farm Bureau: $1500 each to two students, one male and one female, and be a member of Carlisle County Farm Bureau.
- Christian County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to eight students attending Christian County high schools. At least four of the winners must major in agriculture or be from a farm family.
- Crittenden County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to four students attending Crittenden County High School. Recipients must be a member of Crittenden County Farm Bureau for at least six months prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Daviess County Farm Bureau: $2,000 to one Daviess County student pursuing a Career and Technical Education (CTE). In the absence of an eligible CTE applicant, the scholarship shall be awarded to a student pursuing a four-year degree.
- Daviess County Farm Bureau/Tom Curtsinger: $2,000 to a Daviess County student. The winner must major in agriculture or is from a farm family.
- Daviess County Farm Bureau Insurance Agents: $2,000 to one Daviess County students.
- Daviess County Farm Bureau/Daniel Turley: $2,000 to one Daviess County students.
- Daviess County Farm Bureau Young Farmer: $1,000 to one Daviess County student who is majoring in agriculture or is from a farm family.
- Daviess County Farm Bureau Continuing Education in Agriculture: $1,000 to a current college student majoring in an agriculture field.
- Hancock County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to three students. Recipients must be a member of Hancock County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Harrison County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to two Harrison County students.
- Hopkins County Farm Bureau: $2000 each to four Hopkins Co students pursuing a four-year degree or a degree in Career and Technical Education. It is the Hopkins Co Farm Bureau's preference to award 3 University or College scholarships and one Career and Technical Education Scholarship when applicable. Recipients must be a member of Hopkins Co Farm Bureau for at least 1 year prior to applying for this scholarship. If student majors in agriculture, the scholarship increases to $4,000.
- Kenton County Farm Bureau: $2,000 each to four Kenton County students.
- Knott County Farm Bureau: $1,000 to a student attending a Knott County high school. Applicant must be a resident of Knott County. Recipient must be a member of Knott County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Laurel County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to eight Laurel County students. Four scholarships will be awarded to a student attending North Laurel High School. Four scholarships will be awarded to a student attending South Laurel High School. It is the Laurel County Farm Bureau's preference to award six University or College scholarships and two Career and Technical Education Scholarships when applicable, divided equally between the two high schools previously list.

- Livingston County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to three students. One scholarship will be renewable for up to four years.
- McCracken County Farm Bureau: $2,000 each to two McCracken County students.
- Mercer County Farm Bureau: $1,000 to a Mercer County student.
- Metcalfe County Farm Bureau: $500 to a Metcalfe County High School senior. Recipient must be a member of Metcalfe County Farm Bureau at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Monroe County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to two Monroe County students.
- Oldham County Farm Bureau/Boyd Johnson Honorary Scholarship: $2,000 to one student who is a resident of Oldham County. Preference shall be given to FFA members. Recipient must be a member of Oldham County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship. If student majors in agriculture, the scholarship increases to $3,000.
- Oldham County Farm Bureau: $2,000 to one student who is a resident of Oldham County. Recipient must be a member of Oldham County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship. If student majors in agriculture, the scholarship increases to $3,000.
- Oldham County Continuing Education: $2,000 to a current college student who is a resident of Oldham County. Recipient must be a member of Oldham County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Pulaski County Farm Bureau: $1,500 each to four students attending Pulaski County schools. Two female students and two male students will be chosen as winners. Recipients must be a member of Pulaski County Farm Bureau for at least two years prior to applying.
- Pulaski County Farm Bureau Non-Traditional: $1,500 to one student that attended Pulaski County schools who is over the age of 23. Recipients must be a member of Pulaski County Farm Bureau for at least two years prior to applying. Recipient must be a member of Pulaski County Farm Bureau at least two years prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Russell County Farm Bureau: $2,000 to three students attending a Russell County High School.
- Shelby County Farm Bureau/Roy V. Catlett Scholarship: $2,500 to one student who is a resident of Shelby County and attends a Kentucky accredited high school (public or private) or home school. Student must major in agriculture or a related field. Preference will be given to a student who plans to attend the University of Kentucky.

- Shelby County Farm Bureau: $2,500 each to two students who are residents of Shelby County and attend a Kentucky accredited high school (public or private) or home school. One of the two recipients will be from a regular member family.
- Shelby County Continuing Education: $2,500 to a college student. Recipient must be a member of Shelby County Farm Bureau.
- Warren County Farm Bureau/R.O. Buchanon Scholarship: $4,000 to one student who lives in Warren County and attends a Bowling Green or Warren County high school. Applicant must major in agriculture or be from a farm family. Recipient must be a member of Warren County Farm Bureau at least one year prior to applying.
- Warren County Farm Bureau: $4,000 each to two students who live in Warren County and attend a Bowling Green or Warren County high school. At least one of the winners must major in agriculture. Recipients must be a member of Warren County Farm Bureau at least one year prior to applying.
- Warren County Farm Bureau Technical College Scholarship: $2,000 each to two students pursuing a degree in Career and Technical Education. Recipient must be a member of Warren County Farm Bureau at least one year prior to applying.
- Warren County Farm Bureau Dan Duvall: $4,000 to one student who lives in Warren County and attends a Bowling Green or Warren County high school. Recipient must be a member of Warren County Farm Bureau at least one year prior to applying.
- Webster County Farm Bureau: $1,000 each to two students attending Webster County High School.
- Whitley County Farm Bureau: $4,000 each to two students who are full-time residents of a Whitley County Farm Bureau member's household and are pursuing a four-year degree. At least one of the winners must major in agriculture. Recipients must be a member of Whitley County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.
- Whitley County Farm Bureau Career and Technical Education: $1,000 to one student who is a full-time resident of a Whitley County Farm Bureau member's household and is pursuing a degree in Career and Technical Education. Recipients must be a member of Whitley County Farm Bureau for at least one year prior to applying for this scholarship.