Mercer County Agriculture Community Coming Together to Help Western Kentucky Farmers

Mercer County Cattlemen’s Association, Mercer County Farm Bureau, Fort Harrod Back Country Horsemen, and several local farmers donated almost $8,600 to purchase farm supplies to those affected by the devastating tornadoes in western Kentucky. Many thanks to Johnson Farm Supply, Southern States Harrodsburg, and Ace Hardware Harrodsburg, who provided discounts on products being purchased. Thanks to Jamie DeHart, Zack Ison, Cary King and Linda McClanahan for delivering the items. Donations were delivered to Caldwell County and Muhlenberg County.

Food Check-Out Week

Food Check-Out Week is a national campaign led by the American Farm Bureau Federation commemorating America's healthy, nutritious, abundant, & affordable food supply. Mercer County Farm Bureau will hold events to help heighten awareness of these aspects of our food supply & help bring thanks and recognition to the farmers. Americans currently spend, on average, just over 10% of their disposable, personal income for food—THE LOWEST IN THE WORLD. Applying that statistic to the calendar year means the average household will have earned enough disposable income to pay for its annual food supply in about 7 weeks. In recognition of this, Kentucky Farm Bureau is celebrating February 20-26, 2022, as Food Check-Out Week.

Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation's
5th District Director, Zack Ison

Mercer County native Zack Ison was elected as a director to the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation 5th District at the 102nd State Annual Meeting in December. Zack has served as a director on the Mercer County Farm Bureau Board for over 15 years. Past positions Zack has held with Mercer County Farm Bureau has been president, vice-president, young farmer committee chair along with serving on various other committees. He has served on the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation Policy and Development Resolutions Committee for the past 3 years. Zack is excited to "represent the thoughts and opinions of the people in the 11 counties in the district at the state and national levels". He said "he wanted the opportunity to tell the story of agriculture, because if I don't, someone who doesn't know anything about farming will be making the decisions for us". He believes "that the agriculture community has to speak up". Zack has served on many local boards including the Mercer Co. Conservation Board, the Farm Service Agency, the Mercer Co. Extension Board and the Mercer Co. Youth Investment Board. Zack is continuing his family's legacy with Kentucky Farm Bureau. His grandmother Alma Ray Ison had the first membership with Kentucky Farm Bureau.
